FY 2016 National Criminal History Improvement Program

The FY 2016 NCHIP solicitation has been opened and ACJC is now accepting project proposals. For more information, and specific requirements for applying for NCHIP Grant Funding; contact The Criminal Justice Systems Improvement Program Coordinator at Cjadmin@azcjc.gov

Project applications are due to ACJC by close of business March 25th, 2016.

Projects in the past have included correcting backlogged/incomplete criminal history records, connecting to the ADRS system for criminal history reporting, purchasing Livescans machines in order to more accurately report NICS records to the FBI, and other various projects.

In order to allow sufficient time for ACJC to coordinate and compile numerous proposals, applications are due to ACJC by close of business on MARCH 25TH, 2016. Please submit a full proposal for your NCHIP project via email to:
