The U.S. Department of Justice, Office of Justice Programs' Bureau of Justice Assistance (BJA) 2005 Regional Conference Series will focus on demonstrating and communicating the value of America's justice initiatives. As state and local budgets have become tighter and the search for justice funding has intensified, it is more important than ever to communicate the value of criminal justice initiatives to communities and decision makers. Learn what you can do to deliver a "Return On Investment" from your criminal justice and law enforcement programs.

Who Should Attend

BJA conferences are designed to benefit a wide range of participants, from State Administering Agencies (SAA) to federal, state, local, and tribal justice grantees, law enforcement, and related service providers.

How to Register

To register, fax your name, title and agency information to the NATIONAL CRIMINAL JUSTICE ASSOCIATION at: (202) 628-0080 or register online at: www.ncja.org/bjaregionalreg.html.
