

ARIZONA 2006 CRIMINAL JUSTICE
INFORMATION SHARING SYMPOSIUM

VISION TO VALUE

Monday - December 18, 2006

- 7:30 - 8:50 Registration – Coffee – Vendor Exhibits
- 8:50 - 9:00 PRESENTATION OF COLORS: Chandler Police Department Honor Guard
- 9:00 - 9:10 WELCOME: John Blackburn, Jr., ACJC Executive Director
- 9:10 - 9:30 GREETINGS: The Honorable Andrew Hurwitz, Arizona Supreme Court
- 9:30 - 10:15 Keynote:
THE ATTORNEY GENERAL’S REPORT ON CRIMINAL HISTORY
BACKGROUND CHECKS –
Frank Campbell, USDOJ Office of Legal Policy, Deputy Assistant Attorneys General
Office - Background Investigations/Private Sector Use of Records – Response to Congress/Statutory Requirements
- 10:15 – 10:30 Break
- 10:30 – 11:00 STATE AND NATIONAL EFFORTS TO IMPROVE THE QUALITY OF THE NATION’S CRIMINAL HISTORY RECORDS– Gerard Ramker, Bureau of Justice
Statistics
- 11:00 – 11:30 FBI CJIS INITIATIVES – Todd Commodore, Federal Bureau of Investigations, Lead
Staff to the National Privacy and Crime Prevention Council, Federal & Local Information
Exchange
- 11:30 – 1:00 Lunch & Vendor Exhibits
- 1:00 – 3:00 Panel Session – BACKGROUND INVESTIGATIONS: PUBLIC/PRIVATE SECTOR USE OF CRIMINAL RECORDS
- This session will explore the importance of background checks to private sector employers; examine what data sources are used; discuss the roles and limitations of third-party data vendors; and examine how the system may be improved. The role of the National Privacy and Crime Prevention Council (COMPACT) will be discussed.
- Panel – John Shriner, Wells Fargo; Todd Commodore, FBI lead staff to the National Privacy and Crime Prevention Council (COMPACT); Mike Timmerman, Arizona
Representative, National Privacy and Crime Prevention Council (COMPACT); Tim Dowd, USIS.
- 3:00 – 3:15 Break
- 3:15 – 4:00 HOW TO ADDRESS PRIVACY ISSUES IN LAW ENFORCEMENT
OPERATIONS –Owen Greenspan, Director Law and Policy Program, SEARCH; and Global Privacy Committee Member
- 4:00 – 4:15 DAY ONE CLOSE – John Blackburn, Jr., ACJC Executive Director

ARIZONA 2006 CRIMINAL JUSTICE
INFORMATION SHARING SYMPOSIUM

VISION TO VALUE

Tuesday - December 19, 2006

- 7:30 – 8:30 Registration - Continental Breakfast – Vendor Exhibits
- 8:30 – 8:45 WELCOME: John Blackburn, Jr., ACJC Executive Director
- 8:45 – 9:30 Keynote:
NATIONAL INITIATIVES AND PERSPECTIVE ON INTEGRATION AND INFORMATION SHARING
Cabell Cropper, Executive Director, National Criminal Justice Association (NCJA)
- 9:30 – 10:30 ARIZONA INTEGRATION STRATEGY
The Arizona Criminal Justice Commission (ACJC) is mandated to coordinate the state's criminal history records improvement program and to coordinate statewide criminal justice information sharing efforts. Senior staff of the Arizona Criminal Justice Commission will discuss the state's direction, how Arizona aligns with national strategies; a records integration history, including governance and committee structure and the Arizona ICJIS Strategic Plan, short and long term goals.
- 10:30 – 10:45 Break
- 10:45 – 12:15 Panel Session – PIONEERING INTEGRATION PROJECTS: COUNTY & LOCAL INTEGRATION CASE STUDIES
Representatives from Pima, Coconino and Pinal Counties will share how they moved their respective integration projects from conception through the funding process and rolled out the final product. They will reveal how they overcame difficulties and barriers along the way.
Panel – Jim Wysocki, Administrator, Information Services Division, Tucson Police Department, Pima County; Kevin LaBranche, Coconino County; Lisa Bergeron, Special Projects Administrator, Information Technology, Pinal County
- 12:15 – 1:30 Lunch & Vendor Exhibits
- 1:30 – 2:15 HOW NLETS ASSISTS STATES IN THE SECURE EXCHANGE OF PUBLIC SAFETY INFORMATION – Steve Correll, Nlets Executive Director
- 2:15 – 2:30 Break
- 2:30 – 4:00 Panel Session - ARIZONA INTEGRATION AND INFORMATION SHARING PROJECTS: LINKING VALUE TO VISION
The session will focus on data systems currently implemented for integration efforts. Panelists will discuss identifying key stakeholders; the elements of a good system, funding challenges; and other issues of concern when planning and executing a system-wide integration plan.
Panel – John Barrett, Technical Director, Maricopa County, ICJIS; D.C. Britt, Department of Public Safety; Karl Heckart, Chief Information Officer, Administrative Office of the Courts.
- 4:00 - 4:30 SYMPOSIUM WRAP-UP – John Blackburn, Jr., ACJC Executive Director